

SILOVANCE

CuraVance® Nano Silver Gel
Antibacterial Wound Dressing Gel

CURAVANCE®

What Makes Us Different:

Our CuraVance® SiloVance Wound Dressing Gel is a next generation product that offers all the benefits of silver without any of the drawbacks. It is safe for use on all types of wounds, including burns, and can be used on the whole family.

SiloVance Wound Dressing Gel is a water-based gel that contains engineered silver nanoparticles that are manufactured with a metallic silver core, covered by a thin coating of tetra-silver tetroxide.

We have had numerous studies done to show the effectiveness of Hydronanon Technology, which is unique to SiloVance Antibacterial Wound Dressing Gel.

While silver has been used for centuries to treat wounds, SiloVance takes this traditional remedy to the next level.
